

Dear Mr. Sumner,

I am info.

And this morning, that your name appears in an advertisement in the Mercantile Journal
as one of the speakers at Faneuil Hall this evening: & I hasten
in consequence to say

Such an advertisement is entirely unauthorised by us, & gives us much trouble but it should prove annoying to you.

You know how gladly we should listen to you from this platform, yet
we did not choose even to ask it this year because we could not be to be importunate, & because we counsel in you that when the occasion shall seem to you sufficiently important, you will not fail to improve it.

Pray accept the assurance from Sumner agent for this accident, for which indeed we are not to blame, & for which we account

I am, dear Mr. Sumner, yours very truly
A. W. Chapman.
